Dear Brendan: with apologies for the delay in responding, this will confirm that beIN does not object to the draft protective order. Of course, beIN reserves the right to dispute the appropriateness of a "Highly Confidential" designation for particular documents or information, consistent with Section 2 of the draft order. Mr. Hurwitz and Mr. Michalopoulos,

Absent an objection from beIN, we plan to adopt the protective order. I am hopeful that we will have an order in place in time for Comcast to file and serve the Answer on time. I don't think we need to have a call unless either party requests one.

Thanks, and have a great weekend.

Best,
Brendan

Dear Mr. Broeckaert:

On behalf of Comcast, I'm writing to call your attention to the attached request for enhanced confidential treatment and a protective order that we filed yesterday. This request covers certain highly confidential materials that we plan to include in our upcoming submission of an Answer in this program carriage proceeding. The Answer is due on May 14.

If it would be helpful to have a call this week (together with counsel for beIN, copied here) on this request, I'd be happy to do so and answer any questions you have. And please let me know if I should direct this request elsewhere in the Bureau.

Thank you.

Best,
Michael
